The core value of RIS draws its strength by...

Rich scholastic faculty, sound infra-structure, latest technology and cosmopolitan curriculum are the main pillars of any educational institution. In RIS the management is committed to fulfill the criteria to keep the standard of education compatible with world trend. The education must be child-centric, capable of not only diagnosing the problems of child but also providing a permanent cure to them. The core value of RIS draws its strength by keeping pace with latest development in the pedagogy, latest global trends of educational transformation, with a rich variegated history, extra ordinary complex cultural diversity and commitment to democratic value and general well being. The architecturally majestic infrastructure definitely provides aesthetic and pious milieu where learning becomes a fun.

- Anil Rawal, Pro-Chairman

The main focus of education should be to encourage the learner to explore himself

The main purpose of education is character building. Education must create citizens who are value driven. Only such citizens can uphold democratic values and varied heritage. They will become assets for nation. Over the years my aim has been to develop RIS in the way where it is capable of catering to the need of society in a fast changing world. The main focus of education should be to encourage the learner to explore himself/herself and to let him/her bring out the innate ideas to fruitful reality. This can be done by imparting various life skills to students so that they are able to cope with different types of stress which may come in life. Love for mother earth and environment, empathy for others, analytical and critical thinking, cosmopolitan outlook and building

Modern Teaching With Traditional Soul

- Q.1 How is RIS a school different from others?
Ans. At RIS we keep the students aware with the latest developments in the field of education but with deep rooted belief in our own cultural ethos. Here modernization does not mean blind westernization.
- Q.2 Your school is located in Nangla Sohna Road. How do you take it, as an advantage or otherwise?
Ans. Definitely it is an advantage. Sohna Road is a state highway which provides easy and quick access to school from Mathura Road. Secondly the location of the school in a pollution free environment helps students in destressing them.
- Q.3 Education sector is becoming more competitive. Schools are offering extra teaching for various competitive exams. Do you provide any such facility?
Ans. Yes, We have expert teaching faculty to prepare students for Aryabhata, NTSE, KVPI, IIT, PMT etc. Moreover we provide free to and fro bus facility to take students to prestigious coaching institutes to ensure safety of children.
- Q.4 Today the world is clamouring for sustainable development. Do you have some programmes regarding this?
Ans. In our school use of plastic is totally banned. All the teachers and students are sensitized towards environment. A habit of sensible responsibility is systematically inculcated among students from beginning towards mother earth through programmes like plantation and gardening.
- Q.5 As a principal, what are your focus areas?

“Our main focus here is on the development of various life skills so that every child is able to lead a happy, successful and productive life. A habit of critical and creative thinking, emotional stability and analytical understanding is developed through course material.”

- Dr. C.V. Singh, Principal
