SCHOOL PROSPECTUS

Your Pathways To Success

From the
CHAIRMAN
Desk

First and foremost, adorations to THE ALMIGHTY for bestowing upon us the blessings and grace to enable us to add some more feathers to our cap. Now YADU PUBLIC SCHOOL (YPS), SEC-73, NOIDA is a dream come true institution for students to motivate and achieve their goals in life.

In tune with the technology-driven era and keeping pace with the ever-changing scenario we need to provide quality education in an innovative manner that would go a long way in developing our human resources as per the global needs. There is no denying the fact that a child's first educational chapter starts in its family which is an informal agency of education. But despite this fact, no one can deny and belittle the significance of education provided to the child at school which is a formal agency of education. The former agency pertains to acquisition but the latter one pertains to learning.

YPS is not just a school but a TEMPLE OF LEARNING, WHERE THE TEACHERS ARE IN IOCO PARENTIS. We, at YPS, commit ourselves to impart quality education keeping in consideration all three domains of human behaviour viz. Cognitive, Affective and Psychomotor to achieve the harmonious and wholesome personality development of our students.

It is rightly said both Nature and Nurture are indispensable for the true development of the personality of the individual. They complement and supplement each other. And so goes the line GOD AND GURUS ARE NURTURERS. You are most welcome to YPS, the institution that will nurture the nature of your ward. We are fully aware of the great trust you are reposing in us by entrusting your child's education to our team of teachers, we assure you of our commitment to this endeavour. I also extend my best wishes to the Managing Trustee, Principal, Staff and Students of YPS, as they continue their journey on the road to Excellence.
