Our Founder

We dedicate DMPS,
the temple of learning and virtue to the memory of our great Philanthropist Late Ch. Deep Chand Ji (1916-1980)

"Education is the manifestation of the perfection already present in man"

Deep Memorial Public School has taken this proclamation as its motto. The idea of setting up a school to provide quality education to the upcoming generation was conceptualized by late Ch. Deep Chandji in his lifetime. The idea was brought into reality in the form of Deep Memorial Public School, Ramprastha, Ghaziabad, in the year 1988 to commemorate the memory of the late Ch. Deep Chandji, a great philanthropist and freedom fighter. The school was formally inaugurated by His Excellency, Shri Moti Lal Vohra, then Governor of Uttar Pradesh. It was affiliated to the Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE), Delhi, in 1990. The school grew tremendously in terms of the strength and quality of the students and, therefore, a separate Junior branch was set up at D-Block, Ramprastha, Ghaziabad, which was formally inaugurated by His Excellency, Shri Vishnu Kant Shastri, then Governor of Uttar Pradesh.

The school has taken up the herculean task to develop a strong, healthy and sharp intellect imbued with self respect in the young students. Education, in our institution, is value-oriented which upholds the essence of our rich and varied Indian culture, at the same time, keeping its doors open to the modern thoughts and scientific outlook. The school provides a wholesome amalgam of activities and a healthy atmosphere for the development of mind and intellect to match the demands of the dynamic society. The school has special provision for the students from Disadvantaged and Economically weaker section. The aim of the school is to create a spirit of nationalism, brotherhood, a sense of self-discipline, gentle manners and refined taste. The school has had an excellent record in examinations. In 2001, Ankur Goyal was amongst the Toppers of CBSE in the All India Secondary School Examination at All India Level and in 2017 Raunaq Bali was amongst the Toppers of CBSE in the All India Senior School Certificate Examination in the Dehradun region. In addition to academics, the school seeks to ingrain in students, the civic and moral values. Thus, the school lays more emphasis on the all-round development of each and every student. The medium of instruction is English but due emphasis is given to Hindi also.
